

01:050:300:B7

The American Film Musical

We will explore this uniquely American art form from its earliest Hollywood production to its resurgence in film today. Readings will include historical, cultural, performative, aesthetic and technical approaches to the development of the American musical film. Class meetings will include film screenings. Films screened will range from THE JAZZ SINGER to DREAMGIRLS.