

300:E6

Cult Film in American Culture

Summer 2008

A course focusing on out-of-the mainstream films that characteristically features atypical heroes and heroines, offbeat dialogue, and highly original story lines. Such films often attract a devoted audience of repeat viewers whose attendance becomes a communal event. In-depth analysis of the structure and content of films which include The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Night of The Living Dead, The Texas Chainsaw Massacre, and others.