

American Studies Internship Opportunity

Photography Business

Michele Johnson is looking for with someone to assist her in her business. She recently started a photography business and the website is www.treeofheavenphotography.com. Her intention is through the display of her photographs, she hopes to share the beauty of our world and share messages of hope and inspiration. At this time, she is looking for an individual to assist her in the operations of her business.

This person's main responsibilities would be blogging, internet marketing, photography contest registration, and tracking, participating in social networking sites, and organizing a website. Also, some help with expense reports and office organization. The business is in a time of expansion. Johnson is also in the process of possible participation in a fundraiser. She plans on targeting future fundraising projects with her pictures and also approaching galleries in the Tri-state area.

At this point, the business takes place in her home office. Johnson has a computer that uses Microsoft XP. She looks forward to someone who would be interested in learning and being part of an exciting business. Instruction and supervision will be provided. The work can be done for academic credit through the course 01:050:380. Work on this project may be started in the Fall of 2008 or the Spring of 2009. Interested students may contact Professor Gillespie at agillespie@amst.rutgers.edu