THE CHICANO WAVE / LA ONDA CHICANA

Mexican-Americans in California, Texas and across the Southwest create their own distinct musical voices during the second half of the 20th century. Their music would play an important role in the struggle for Chicano civil rights and ultimately propel them from the barrio to the national stage. Featuring Ritchie Valens, Little Joe, Tierra, Los Lobos, Freddy Fender, Linda Ronstadt, Flaco Jimenez, Selena, and Los Tigres Del Norte with El Chicano, Cannibal and the Headhunters, The Premiers, Sam the Sham and Question Mark.

Program Sponsored by the Department of American Studies and the Associate Vice President for Academic and Public Partnerships for the Arts and Humanities.
