

050:326

Culture of American Women

This course explores the cultures that women (and girls) of the U.S. have formed at the workplace and at school, in political movements and in leisure activity that includes everything from early 20thC amusement parks to today's clubbing. Throughout we will pay attention to the ways that "women's cultures" are articulated in both racially and class specific ways. Texts include: Women Without Class, Club Cultures, Cheap Amusements, Ladies of Labor, Yours in Sisterhood, and Separate Roads to Feminism.