

050:304

The American City

The American City takes an interdisciplinary approach to the history, culture, problems and future of urban areas by investigating specific icons of American urbanism. Expect to cover such cities as: New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Atlantic City, Newark, etc. This course relies heavily on a variety of audio visual components and actual field work exercises.